“Responsible Conduct of Research -Research Integrity and Ethics in Georgian Universities” (ETHICS)

- Program: ERASMUS-EDU-2022-CBHE-STRAND-3
- Project Number: 101082546
- Project Duration: 48 Months (01/02/2023 – 31/01/2027)

On March 1, 2023, the first national meeting of the European Commission-funded project "Responsible Conduct of Research – Research Integrity and Ethics in Georgian Universities (ETHICS)" was hosted by Ilia State University.

Representatives from consortium member institutions, Georgian higher education establishments, and non-university partner organisations attended the meeting. These organisations included the Ministry of Education and Science, the Shota Rustaveli National Science Foundation of Georgia, and the National Center for Quality Improvement in Education.

The "Responsible Conduct of Research – Research Integrity and Ethics in Georgian Universities (ETHICS)" project brings together ten Georgian higher education institutions, four European partner institutions, and three Georgian state organisations.

The Tbilisi State Academy of Art is a member of this consortium. The Scientific and Creative Research and Development Department at the Tbilisi State Academy of Art is implementing the project. Over the next four years, relevant departments, faculties, and research units at the Tbilisi State Academy of Art will collaborate with the Department to develop and implement mechanisms for responsible research. The four-year project aims to enhance existing mechanisms, procedures, and services in research ethics and integrity by sharing best practices in scientific research and fostering a collaborative working process.
